

Employment Opportunity Landscape Architect II

City of Phoenix

ABOUT THIS POSITION

The Landscape Architect II positions are responsible for performing advanced professional landscape architecture work relating to the planning, design, and review of development projects within the City of Phoenix as it relates to landscape, plant inventory/salvage, hillside, and path and trail requirements. This position will assist the Principal Landscape Architect in reviewing landscape and hillside plans for conformance, providing assistance and clarifications to developers and customers, and coordinating with other departments to ensure landscape requirements and stipulations are implemented and complied with. Incumbents will conduct research and analysis, attend development meetings, advise site planners, and prepare reports.

IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal candidate will have experience with State and Federal laws and regulations as they pertain to native plants, landscape, water conservation requirements for new development, and knowledge of native and drought-tolerant planting design. Experience reviewing or creating landscape and salvage plans, Hillside development plans including grading, drainage, and retaining wall designs, and public multi-use trail and shared-use path plan plans.
