

Irrigation Designer

Coleman Design Group is seeking a creative and talented individual to join our team as an Irrigation Designer. The ideal candidate will have 1-5 years of experience and understand the basic principles of landscape design with a strong desire to learn irrigation design. Candidate must reside in Arizona. Coleman Design Group serves developers and other landscape architectural firms with their irrigation design and consulting needs. Our portfolio is diverse and includes projects in the areas of Master Planned Communities, Commercial, Medical / Healthcare, Education, Campus Design, Parks, and Resorts and Hospitality.

Responsibilities:

- Participate in all stages of design development.
- Prepare construction document sets including sheet layout, details, and specifications for irrigation plans.
- Assist project manager in day-to-day tasks as required for project completion.

Qualifications:

- Experience with, or a basic understanding of, the principals of landscape and/or irrigation design (we are willing to train irrigation design).
- Willingness to learn and take direction in a fast-paced work environment.
- Thorough understanding of construction document packaging, detailing, and written specifications.
- 1-5 years professional design firm experience preferred.

Education / Experience Requirements:

- 1 year AutoCAD experience required.
- Bachelor's or Master's Degree in Landscape Architecture, Civil Engineering, or related field preferred.
- Licensure not required

Technical Knowledge:

- AutoCAD / Land F/X
- Microsoft Office
- Adobe Creative Suite (specifically Photoshop and InDesign)

Salary:

- $35,000-$60,000 depending on experience

Benefits:

- Health Insurance Reimbursement Program
- Unlimited Paid Time Off
- SIMPLE IRA with up to 3% Company Match
- Profit Sharing / Bonuses
- Work Remotely
- Flexible Schedule

Submissions:

Qualified candidates should email their resume and portfolio to: colemandesigngroup@gmail.com and use "Irrigation Designer Position" as the subject line of your email. No phone calls please.